

i feel robbed of my freedom of choice. the choices i make as a free productive member of society should not be in the hands of no one but me. it is wrong to think that the fcc can control the air ways by taking away the one thing that makes this great country what it is today.....freedom! this is only the first step what will be the next thing you take from the people who pay your salaries?

loyal stern supporter